

The Washington Consulting Group Spaceport Operational Support

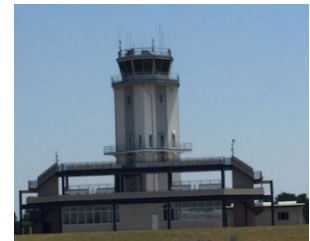

The Washington Consulting Group, Inc. (WCG), incorporated in 1979 by Owner/President/CEO Armando Chapelli, is a proven leader in providing technical services in Aerospace Operations and Management to both public and private clients. The company has worked with the FAA since 1985, supporting civil and military clients both domestically and internationally, including China, Jamaica, Columbia, Iraq, Djibouti, and Indonesia. WCG provides normal staffing, surge and contingency support for global and domestic aviation support services including:

- Air Traffic Control (ATC) Services and Training
- Airport/Spaceport Operations Support Services
- Airport/Spaceport Maintenance Support Services
- Space Launch and Test Airspace Access
- Spaceport Launch Operators License, Part 450
- Spaceports:
 - Part 420 Launch Site
 - Part 433 Reentry Site

WCG demonstrates proven airport/spaceport capabilities at Kennedy Space Center Launch and Landing Facility via its:

- ATC Services
- Airfield Support Operations
- Airport/Spaceport Maintenance Support Services
- Airport/Spaceport Management Operations

WCG provides Licensed Spaceports enhance safety, effectiveness, and gained efficiencies through:

- Bundled Services
- Standardized Products
- Quality Control and Safety
- Provide Your Customers with One Stop Technical Services

